Keynote Proposal

"The World Belongs to The Encourager"

Abstract

Life is hard and challenging, especially with change as our constant companion; however, there is one relationship tool that will never become obsolete," Encouragement". In this motivational talk, I share a compelling real-world story of rags to riches and will invite the audience to embrace the idea of becoming an encourager and show them why it's their greatest investment for success.

"Erick's speaker evaluation ratings are among the highest I've ever seen for a conference speaker!"

-Lori Kalscheuer, Wisconsin Bankers Association

Learning Objectives

1. Discover how encouragement starts from within and how to apply three principles to become comfortable within your own world.
2. Learn the three keys to encouraging others and why it's important for long term success.
3. How encouragement attracts success.
